MONTOYA'S SLAYING WAS JUSTIFIED

Epaflordite Baca Released on Charge of Causing Death of Man Found in His Home on Night of July 1.

Las Vegas, N. M., July 13.—The preliminary hearing held Monday, acquitted Epaflordite Baca from all blame for the death of Lenguito Montoya on the night of July 4, on the ground that the killing was justifiable. Both Baca and Montoya were well known men of Tecolote, N. M. Montoya died as a result of injuries inflicted by Baca when he unexpectedly returned home and found Montoya with his wife, July 1. After hearing the evidence in the case Justice Pablo Vizcaino yesterday afternoon dismissed the charges against Baca and he walked from the court room a free man.

As the matter now stands Baca can be indicted by the next territorial grand jury but it is thought to be unlikely that such will result as the killing, judging from the evidence adduced at the preliminary hearing.

KANSAS MYSTERY BELIEVED TO BE CLEARING

Body of W. W. Hix Was Found Buried in Sand June 18. Arrest of His Alleged Slayer Now Made.

Louis, Kan., July 13.—Preston Sturm, a young farmer, whose home is near Saxman, Riley county, has been arrested by Sheriff Burford and being held for investigation in connection with the alleged murder of W. W. Hix, whose body was found in the sand hills near Saxman, June 18. Sturm admits he knew Hix but does not know any knowledge of his death.

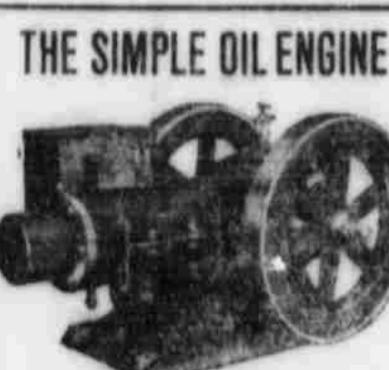

A farmer's boy, while looking after his cattle in a large pasture three miles east of Saxon, Sunday afternoon, June 18, discovered the body of a man partly covered with the sand. He quickly notified neighbors and the coroner and sheriff were summoned. It was at first believed identification would be impossible.

The body was about to be buried when Sam Jones, an attorney, who solved the mystery in the Turner
